

HEAVENLY HORSES NEWS

Where has summer gone? It seems like just yesterday we were scrambling around to get prepared for summer camps and VBS! Now it is snowing and our horses are getting soft and fluffy with their winter coats!

As we prepare for winter and the upcoming Christmas season, it is time to start thinking about things like Christmas camps and Winter shows.

CHRISTMAS PARTY

We will be having our annual Christmas party at the barn on Saturday, December 14, from 1-3.

We will have food, our ornament exchange game, caroling to the horses and giving them their Christmas treats.

CAMPS

This year we will be having our usual beginner and intermediate camps.
December 26 and 27 from 8 AM-4PM.

Each camp day will be $110

Beginner and intermediate riders can choose from either day or both days!

WINTER SHOW SERIES

Everyone agrees, Heavenly Horses Winter Shows are the best way to spend a cold, snowy Saturday afternoon!

We will be having our Winter fun shows starting in January. For only $50 any HH student can participate and learn about the wonderful world of horse shows.

All shows will start at 12:30

January 11, 2020

February 1

March 7

April 4

HEAVENLY HORSES MERCHANDISE

Don't forget to check out our HH gear and clothing. The link is on the home page of our website. Orders can be made any time. New items are being added so check it out.

Our merchandise makes a great Christmas gift for any horse lover!

CALENDAR

Once again, we will be offering a beautiful calendar of our very own Heavenly Horses! These will be available starting in early December. Make sure you check them out!

SCOUTS

Did you know that Heavenly Horses does the Scouting Merit Badge? Mrs. C. has been involved with Scouts for 27 years and has the best Horsemanship Scout program around! If your troop is interested in earning this badge let us know right away-these very popular programs fill up quickly!
