

When to Circle

You should circle your horse if.....

- You are getting too close to the horse in front of you.
- The horse in front of you is having problems.
- You need to calm an excited horse.
- You need to slow down a fast horse.
- You need to stop a horse if they are racing back in line.
- You need to rest the horse's brain.
- Your instructor asks you to.
- You are learning to steer and control your horse.
